UNIVERSITY OF
NOTRE DAME

The Law School

Monday Morning Update

October 9 - October 15

Hello Notre Dame Law School,

I hope everyone had an awesome weekend! Things are really picking up here at the law school with midterms, quizzes, and papers due. Luckily, Fall Break is right around the corner and it is a great week to catch up on outlines (1Ls), read those assignments you missed because you were busy interviewing (2Ls) or continue to count down the days until we can make money again (3Ls). I personally will be going to Chapel Hill, NC to watch my Alma Mater take it to the Tar Heels, so I welcome any and all recommendations.

While this is an important week for lots of students in the law school, be sure to remember that one mid-semester quiz or paper will not make or break your grade, it will not keep you from getting the job you want, it will not be the only indicator of how you stack up with your classmates. There is still lots of time left in the semester to understand topics you did not quite fully grasp the first time reading or in class, lots of time to practice essay questions or exam questions, and lots of time to talk with professors about the material. I encourage the 1Ls to take the first few days of fall break off and relax. Catch up on that Netflix show, it missed you. I also encourage the 1Ls to reach out to their mentors and ask them what they did during fall break and if they have any advice or tips. The 2Ls and 3Ls are all here to help and we all LOVE talking about how you should be like us even though we had 0 idea what were doing, just like you.

In any event, enjoy the break and I hope everyone has safe travels. Here are some Monday Musings:

1.

16		Notre Dame	5-1	583	↑ 5
17		Michigan	4-1	524	↓ 10

Isn't this just the best thing you've seen so far today???

The Irish started a Redshirt Freshman and came out of North Carolina with a big road victory. Meanwhile down the road in Ann Arbor, Michigan coach Jim Harbaugh saw his record against rivals go to 1-4 as the Wolverines looked lost against a team Notre Dame manhandled two weeks ago in Michigan State. Looking at the schedule for Notre Dame, the Irish have some HUGE games coming up as 5 of their last 6 games will be against currently ranked opponents. I hope to see everyone at the USC game in two weeks, campus should be rocking.

And, oh hey look at this!

Others receiving votes: Louisville 85, Georgia Tech 47, Kentucky 41, West Virginia 29, Texas Tech 29, Florida 23, Texas A&M 14, Troy 10, Memphis 9, LSU 9, Wake Forest 5, Virginia 5, Iowa State 4, Mississippi State 3, Iowa 3, South Carolina 3, Texas 2, Colorado State 2

2. I am not sure if all of you saw this, but AIM is coming to an end in 2017. Before texting was a thing, the way to talk with your buddies was AIM. I like to joke about the screen-names however when you think about how absurd we all were with our AIM accounts, you can't help but laugh. I mean were you really a girl's friend if they did not have your initials in their profile? Or did you really like someone if you didn't a) tell your crush you would "brb," 2) put some quote from your favorite Fall Out Boy or My Chemical Romance song as your away message expressing your feelings for your crush, 3) wait juuust long enough to make sure they read it, and 4) go back online and see if they had anything to say about it? AIM truly was one of the most memorable parts of being a teenager in the early 00's and I will look back on those days as beckham204 and maniacmagee90 fondly.

3. My life has been pretty consumed by sports the past week, so this is all I got. I hope you enjoy your break from me and my musings. Go Yankees.

Go Irish, Beat Bye Week. Go Hoos, Beat Heels.

Lots of love,
Drew

SBA POWDERPUFF TOURNAMENT

Thank to all those who participated in the powderpuff game and came out to support their fellow classmates. We had a great time and turnout! Big congratulations to the 2L class --the reigning champs!! Huge S/O to our SBA Athletics Committee for an awesome event!

EXPERIENTIAL LEARNING FAIR

Attend our first-ever Experiential Learning Fair on Monday, October 23rd co-sponsored by the Externship Programs, the Clinical Law Center, the Career Development Office, and the Student Bar Association.

The event will begin with a presentation about experiential learning opportunities in the Courtroom at 5:30, followed by a reception with food and drink in the Eck Commons.

All of our externship professors and many field placement supervisors, along with our clinical professors, will be at the reception to answer your questions about their courses and law offices. Stay tuned for more information about the Fair.

LEGAL WRITING TUTOR PROGRAM

The Legal Writing Center is now open!

Starting this week, writing tutors will hold office hours in the law school every day in Room 2146. Drop in or make an appointment (<https://nd.mywconline.com/index.php?msgLOG=YES>) to consult tutors about your class papers or Notes.

Please note: this service is not open to 1Ls for help with Legal Writing memos. 1Ls taking a paper-based elective in the Spring may use this service.

Questions about the Legal Writing Center? Please contact Professor Venter.

EXAM CONFLICTS AND SPECIAL REQUESTS

In case you have not seen it, the exam schedule is posted online. The deadline for notifying the Student Services Office of examination conflicts or of special needs for which accommodations are needed is Friday, November 3, 12 PM.

The November 3 deadline for notification of exam conflicts or special needs is firm, so please check the exam schedule immediately. No requests to change one's exam schedule will be accepted after this date, except in cases of family or medical emergencies, or other unforeseeable circumstances that require last-minute attention.

Check your emails for the form.

SYMPPLICITY

Attention all 1Ls!! You are invited to logon to your Symplicity account to make your first appointment with a counselor. The first day you can meet with a counselor is October 16th, but you can make your appointment now! If you haven't already created your Symplicity account please do so at your earliest convenience.

Mass Schedule

For the Fall 2017 semester, Masses will be offered in the St. Thomas More Chapel as follows:

- Monday-Thursday, 5:15 PM
- Friday, 12:30 PM
- Sunday, 4:30 PM

STUDENT SUPPORT

In the last few weeks we've seen natural disasters and senseless shootings dominate the news. If you are having a difficult time dealing with these events or simply need to speak with someone, please know that there are many campus resources at your disposal, including:

- The University Counseling Center,
- The McDonald Center for Student Well-Being,

- Campus Ministry, and
 - Assistant Dean O'Rear and I in the Student Services Office, as well as others throughout the Law School.

This Week @ NDLS

Monday - October 9

- CDO: Become a Military Lawyer! Careers in the JAG Corps - 12:30pm in Room 1310
 - JAG careers are incredibly exciting and rewarding careers that actually pay fairly well. Military lawyers get thrown in the deep end right away and start representing clients, going in the courtroom, and advising commanding officers almost immediately. During this panel, JAG officers from the Coast Guard, Navy, and Marines as well as students who have worked in JAG offices will talk about their career paths, life in the military, and the exciting practice that is JAG law.
 - Please RSVP in Symplicity for lunch.
- SBA Meeting: 12:30pm in Room 1130

Tuesday - October 10

- The Center for Civil and Human Rights: Learning the Ropes: Housing Law in Practice - 12:30pm in Room 1310
 - Arianna Cook-Thajudeen, J.D. '18, recipient of CCHR's first Summer Fellowship, spent the past summer working with the San Francisco-based National Housing Law Project. In this talk, Arianna will describe the process of helping fulfill NHLPP's mission to advocate for fair housing standards, and offer insights into the real-world challenges faced by public interest firms in a new political reality.
 - Lunch will be served
- LAMB Corporate Governance Symposium: The Antitrust Implications of Horizontal Shareholdings - 3:30pm to 5:30pm in the Faculty Meeting Room
 - Join us for a panel discussion on "The Antitrust Implications of Horizontal Shareholdings." This talk will focus on the intersection of corporate governance and antitrust law and the recent work of Einer Elhauge, Petrie Professor of Law at Harvard Law School. Sponsored by ND LAMB and the Larry Bonner Endowment for Excellence in Commodities and Securities Law. All are welcome. More info is here: <http://lamb.nd.edu/events/2017/10/10/the-antitrust-implications-of-horizontal-shareholdings/>

- CDO: Careers in State & Local Government - 12:30pm in Room 1315
 - An often overlooked but great career path includes careers in state and local government. Whatever type of law you are interested in practicing, you can do it in state or local government. From state Attorney General's offices to local schools to state agencies, the career opportunities in this field are endless.
 - Please RSVP in Symplicity for lunch.
- ACLU, FPAC, and NLG: Bail Reform in St. Joseph County: A Model for Indiana? - 12:30pm in Room TBA
 - St. Joseph County Prosecutor Ken Cotter and St. Joseph County Community Corrections Advisory Board Executive Administrator Kate Williams discuss the implementation of Criminal Rule 26 and what still needs to be done to fix the money bail system.
 - Chipotle will be served.

Wednesday - October 11

- 2L Class Mass and Social:
 - The SBA Spiritual Life Committee invites all 2Ls to the 5:15 mass in St. Thomas More Chapel, followed by a get-together (dinner appetizers provided) at Reckers in the Morris Inn.
- SCELF: Baseball Arbitration Tournament - 12:30pm (Room TBA)
 - There will be an informational meeting for the Notre Dame Baseball Salary Arbitration Tournament. At the meeting there will be a signup sheet for teams to register for the tournament. The Executive team will briefly go over the format of the tournament as well as announce the player and comps.
- CDO/Themis: Bar Exam Applications - 5:30pm in Room 3140
 - The eventual path for most law school students includes a bar exam. It is never too early to start preparing! Come hear about what is involved in the application, when to start and why they are so important. This presentation focuses on the application for the exam, not the exam itself. It is general enough for everyone and not jurisdiction-specific. Bring a friend and come on by! 1Ls, 2Ls and 3Ls. Everyone is invited. JW Chen's will be served for those who RSVP due to the generosity of Themis Bar Review. Thanks, Themis!
 - JW Chens will be served
- CDO: Paying Loans While Working in Public Interest - 12:30pm in Room 1315
 - It is no mystery that government and public interest salaries are not as high as salaries at big law firms but you CAN pay back loans while working in public interest and actually live a decent life too. Brandon Hanson, the Student Debt Specialist for Law School Engagement & Advocacy at Equal Justice Works, James Champlin, an attorney and NDLS alumni actively working as a public interest attorney and paying back loans, and 2L Bill Green, 1L Summer, Lawyers Committee for Better Housing and student debt advocate, will join us to speak about paying back loans and managing debt while working in public interest.
 - Please RSVP in Symplicity for lunch.
- Black Law Students Association: St. Mary's College General Counsel Cristal Brisco - 12:30 in Room 1310
 - Brisco is a graduate of the Law School and will discuss her in-house practice, recent role as South Bend Corporation Counsel, and experience as a firm attorney.

- Lunch will be provided.

Thursday - October 12

- HELPFUL MEETING FOR 1Ls**
 - Are you wondering how you're going to summarize and synthesize all of your course materials in a coherent, organized way before exams?
 - Please plan to attend "How to Outline for Exams and Why" on Thursday, October 12, at 12:30 PM in the Courtroom. This is an instructional program for students presented by Professor Jeff Pojanowski on outlining tips and how outlining helps to prepare a student for exams.
- CDO: Department of Justice Careers and Summer Internships - 12:30pm in Room 1130
 - Are you interested in working for the DOJ either during the summer or after graduation? Are you interested in public service? Do you want to know more about what working for the federal government is like? This program is for you! DOJ Antitrust Division Attorney, Kevin Culum; 3L Mackenzie Cover, 2L summer and 2L spring, U.S. Department of Justice, Civil Division, Office of Immigration Litigation; and 2L Matthew Razzano, 1L summer, Department of Justice, National Courts Section, will speak about their experiences working for the DOJ and how to be a successful candidate for a DOJ position.
 - Please RSVP in Symplicity for lunch.
- CDO: U.S. Navy JAG Corps Info Session - 12:30pm in Room TBA
 - U.S. Navy JAG Corp info session with Lt. Commander Kelly Trunnell.
 - Please RSVP in Symplicity for lunch.

Thursday Riddle:

Bonus points to whoever can guess who the athlete in the picture is.

Friday - October 13

- Get outta hereeeeeeeee
- Here is a good boy:

BYE WEEK FOR THE IRISH! ROOT FOR THE HOOS!

Safe travels, everyone.

Sunday - October 15

- Send me meeting times so I have more events to list.

1L OF THE WEEK

This week's 1L of the Week is Christopher Gerace! If you see him this week, grab this man a coffee.

Let's get to know Chris a bit more, shall we? Thanks, Chris!

Q: Where did you attend undergrad?

A: The Ohio State University (shout-out to Michigan for losing to "little brother" yesterday for the 8th time in the last 10 games).

Q: Where's your hometown?

A: Cleveland, OH, the greatest city on Earth

Drew Side-Note: Ehrrrrrr, not sure about this one....

Q: What did you do before law school?

A: Worked at a small firm on the west side of Cleveland for a year

Q: What did you do this summer?

A: Worked and played lots of sports

Ok now for the serious questions:

Q: Do you know what AIM was and if so, what was your screenname?

A: I know what it is, but I was too cool to have an AIM (I'm a loser)

Drew Side-Note: Two weeks in a row...step up, 1Ls

Q: Who is the best player on your Intramural flag football team with red-hair and a beard?

A: ~~Mike Ols' hair has a touch of red, but I guess~~ I'd have to go with nose tackle Drew Magee

Drew Side-Note: What a great selection, Chris. What a tremendous, just all-around smart pick. I agree with you.

Q: If you could go pro in any sport which would it be?

A: Basketball or Bubble Soccer.

Drew Side-Note: Easily golf. What a great sport to play every day and make millions doing it.

Q: What is your go-to line to start a conversation with a person you haven't met yet?

A: I know the Andrew Magee (dynamite conversation starter).

Drew Side-Note: Poor choice, Chris, this person would likely never speak to you again.

Drew Double Side-Note: Chris later sent me this: "If you're a Yankees fan, I will sweep you off your feet!"
Hmmm, let's hope that doesn't come back to haunt him!

Q: What song reminds you most of high-school dances?

A: Without a doubt, Every Time We Touch by Cascada.

Drew Side-Note: A+ choice. I would go with "Get Low" by Lil Jon and the Eastside Boyz or "Livin' on a Prayer" by Bon Jovi, however that might just be a Jersey high-school dance thing...

HAVE A GREAT WEEK!
